

Foreigners in the Viking and early medieval period – an urban perspective

Thursday 16 June 2016, Moesgård
Lecture Hall, 4206-139

The seminar is arranged with the support of the research programme for Materials, Culture and Heritage, School of Culture and Society, Aarhus University, the Danish Centre for Urban History, and the Centre of Urban Network Evolutions UrbNet. The seminar is free but requires registration. To register please email Gunvor Helene Platou (ghp@cas.au.dk) before Friday 10 June .

Programme

Chairs: Søren M. Sindbæk, UrbNet & Mikkel Thelle, Danish Centre for Urban History

- 13.30: Welcome
- 13.35: Sarah Croix, Aarhus University / Museums of South-West Jutland:
Strangers in Town: a presentation of "The City of the Dead" project
- 14.55: Raphaël G.A.M. Panhuysen, University of Amsterdam:
Old and New Urban Centres in the Early Middle Ages: demography, mobility and health in Maastricht and Dorestad
- 14.40: Kasper H. Andersen, Danish Centre for Urban History / danmarkshistorien.dk, Aarhus University:
The Sound of a Church Bell – a new urban soundscape
- 15.10: Break
- 15.30: Letty ten Harkel, University of Oxford:
Investigating the Dead in Early Medieval Domburg: radiocarbon dating and stable Isotope research
- 16.00: Andres Dobat, Aarhus University:
Foreign Soldiers and Foreign Kings in Viking Age Denmark
- 16.30: Bjørn Poulsen, Aarhus University:
Some evidence on Medieval Migration of Germans into the Danish Realm
- 17.00: Final discussion
- 17.30: Wine reception

MCH Seminar
Materials Culture Heritage

